Interiors

► Material mix

The founder of Ledbury Studio, Charlie Smallbone, created an industrial-inspired island clad in aged, hand-finished zinc to make a cool contrast to colourful stained-glass windows by artist Brian Clarke. There are natural oak drawers and tall cupboards in a bespoke paint effect and a worktop by Caesarstone (020-8216 6100; www.caesarstone.co.uk). Kitchen prices from £70,000 (020-7566 6794; www.ledburystudio.com)

◀ Timeless style

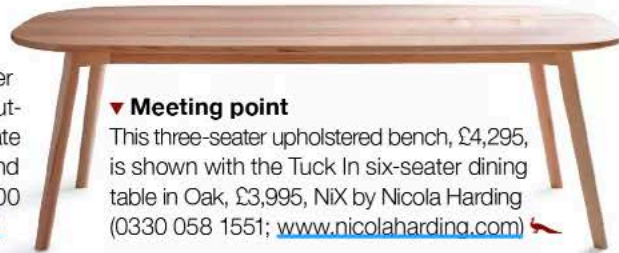

Crisp, elegant detailing is typical of the work of the Somerset bespoke-joinery specialist Artichoke (01934 745270; www.artichoke.co.uk)

▼ Top table

The Meon table is made by Sitting Firm at Gaze Burvill from British ash. It costs £2,700 and is designed to seat eight (01420 588810; www.sittingfirm.co.uk)

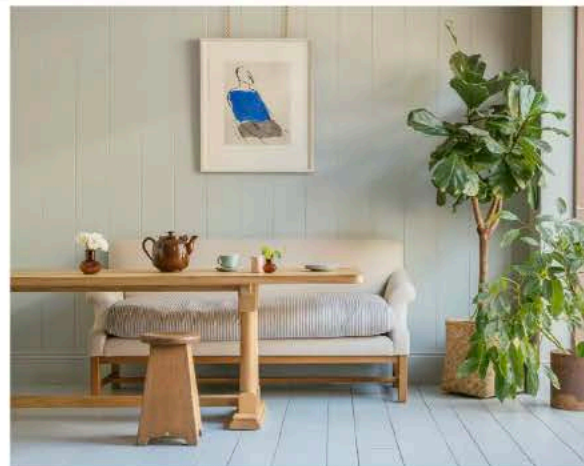

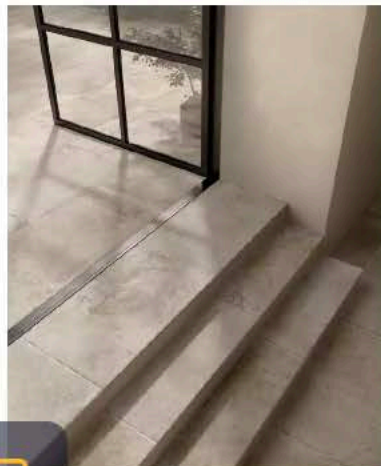

▼ Inside out

These Limoges matt stone-effect porcelain floor tiles, from £38.40 per sq m, are available in indoor and outdoor versions, making it easy to create a seamless flow between kitchen and terrace, from Mandarin Stone (01600 715444; www.mandarinstone.com)

▼ Meeting point
